

Visa Travel Information Services

The travel information service will make a wide range of services available to cardholders who are over 100 kilometers from their home, except in the case of pre-trip assistance.

This service is provided around the clock, 365 days a year. It can be accessed through their bank or by calling the assistance center directly.

Assistance prior to travel

Provide information about destinations, ATM location, exchange rates, passport, Visa requirements, health requirements, immunizations.

Assistance during travel

Our agents at the Visa Customer Service Center will help you in activating all Visa card insurance and benefits, including our International Emergency Medical Services.

Visa offers travel assistance services at no additional charge to the cardholder. The cardholder is responsible for any medical, legal and transportation costs, cash advances or other services or items provided.

Important notice

The description of these programs and benefits is only a tool for guidance on coverage for certain cardholders in Latin America and the Caribbean and is updated to April 2015. Please check with your Visa representative the validity of this information before communicating such benefits to customers and/or cardholders. Cardholders should consult their issuer to verify that coverage applies to their Visa card. These benefits only apply to Visa cards with international use capability.

This document is a summary of the policy intended to be distributed in full to cardholders. If a Visa issuer uses excerpts or portions of this material for distribution to cardholders, it does so at its own risk.

These descriptions are not insurance policies. Described insurances are subject to the terms and conditions in the applicable policies, which include certain restrictions, limitations and exclusions; and all coverages are subject to change or cancellation without notice.

Services and insurance coverage are provided by third parties. Visa is not an insurance company. The detail of all the provisions concerning the insurance plans is detailed in the policies. If there is any difference between the descriptions in this document and the policy signed by the cardholder at the local level, the policy in force locally will govern (in the jurisdiction where the Visa card was issued).

It is the sole responsibility of the issuer to ensure that its card program, customer agreement, card benefits and features, and other disclosures and issuer practices are in full compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and other legal requirements. Issuers should review the card benefits program with their legal counsel to ensure that the card benefits program and disclosures and customer agreements related to such card benefits or features, comply with all applicable legal requirements. Visa makes no representations or warranties as to the information contained herein. This material does not constitute legal advice or opinion.

Coverage and benefits provided by this program, including any such programs provided by insurance company affiliates of AIG and AXA, shall be null and void if they violate U.S. economic or trade sanctions such as, but not limited to, the sanctions administered and enforced by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) of the U.S. Treasury Department.

Benefit amounts are identified in US Dollars. Payment of claims will be made in local currency where required by law, with the official Foreign Exchange Rate published on the date the claim is paid.
